

Rogers Fears Indo-Pakistan War Soon

Exclusive to The Times from Reuters

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State William P. Rogers Friday expressed fears that war might break out soon between India and Pakistan.

He told a Washington luncheon meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, the national professional journalistic society, the United States had asked both sides to exercise maximum restraint.

"We are apprehensive that these clashes (at the border) might lead to the outbreak of hostilities in the days ahead, Rogers said.